

Interoperability Systems International Hellas S.A.

The leading Greek Company in the field of Tactical Command, Control & Communication Systems, Data Link & Interoperability Systems, Tactical Simulators and Trainer has a job opening in the:

INTEGRATION AND TEST DEPARTMENT

The responsibilities of the candidate shall include:

- Analysis of project system requirements
- Develop Software Requirements & Design documents in accordance with the company's Engineering Documentation Standards
- Test and debug modules (standalone test environment) with predefined test cases and verify predicted performance and memory processor requirements
- Integrate Software/Hardware modules with other modules to form complete system(s)
- Perform system integration and acceptance test
- Analyse recorded test output data (HEX, Binary, analogue, etc)
- Use and develop test tools
- Advise Company management regarding perceived and/or recognized problems with performance of designed software, system development and/or system/software testing
- Perform installation and checks out on-site and hotline service or warranty/upgrade works at the installed systems

Employment Standards:

Education: Applicants should have a degree in Computer Science, Software Engineering, Hardware Engineering, Physics, or related field. Good oral and written English required. Good knowledge of MS Office. Entry-level applicants are welcome to respond.

Prerequisite: Military obligations fulfilled for male candidates

Experience: Not required

Please send CV in English to:

ISI Hellas

Human Resources Department

Tichis 25, 16777 Hellinikon

Tel: 210-9647756 or Fax: 210-9634892

E-mail: marilena.mavrodopoulou@isihellas.gr