

Interoperability Systems International Hellas S.A.

The leading Greek Company in the field of Tactical Command, Control & Communication Systems, Data Link & Interoperability Systems, Tactical Simulators and Trainer has a job opening in the:

QUALITY ASSURANCE & CONFIGURATION MANAGEMENT DEPARTMENT

The responsibilities of the candidate shall include:

- Implement, monitor and improve the Company's Policies & Procedures according to ISO 9001:2008
- Perform Internal Quality Audits on Company Programs/Projects and Processes
- Prepare and review files, reports, documentation and forms to include editing, verification, copying, distribution and preparation of documentation and data for delivery
- Act as a Quality Assurance Coordinator in SW Programs/Projects
- Ensure the Company's Configuration Management principles are well implemented
- Configuration identification to include assignment of part numbers, serial numbers, and other identification methods
- Provide support in final product & documentation delivery
- Responsible for documentation, data analysis and reporting, determining quality costs (quality appraisal costs plus handling, repairing or scraping costs plus preventive costs such as training), inspection training and certification

Employment Standards:

Education: Applicants should have a degree (University, Technological Educational Institute or IEK level with relevant experience) in either Physical Sciences, Engineering or related field. Good oral and written English required. Entry-level applicants are welcome to respond.

Prerequisite: Military obligations fulfilled for male candidates

Experience: Not required

Please send CV in English to:

ISI Hellas

Human Resources Department

Tichis 25, 16777 Hellinikon

Tel: 210-9647756 or Fax: 210 9634892

E-mail: marilena.mavrodopoulou@isihellas.gr