

Interoperability Systems International Hellas S.A.

The leading Greek Company in the field of Tactical Command, Control & Communication Systems, Data Link & Interoperability Systems, Tactical Simulators and Trainer has a job opening in the:

SOFTWARE DEPARTMENT

The responsibilities of the candidate shall include:

- Analysis of project system requirements
- Develop Software Requirements & Design documents in accordance with the company's Engineering Documentation Standards
- Code and debug software modules in accordance with the Company's Software Development and Coding Standards Manual
- Integrates Software modules with other modules to form complete system(s)
- Advises Company management regarding perceived and/or recognized problems with performance of designed software, system development and/or system/software testing.

Employment Standards:

Education: Applicants should have a degree in Computer Science, Software Engineering or related field. Good oral and written English required. Entry-level applicants are welcome to respond.

Prerequisite: Military obligations fulfilled for male candidates

Experience:

- Knowledge in either C++ or Ada 83/95 programming languages

Desirable Experience in:

- Object oriented Design
- Graphical User Interface design and programming
- Software Requirements capturing & Analysis
- Software Design and Design documentation
- XML Technology and JAVA

Please send CV in English to:

ISI Hellas

Human Resources Department

Tichis 25, 16777 Hellinikon

Tel: 210-9647756 or Fax: 210 9634892

E-mail: marilena.mavrodopoulou@isihellas.gr